Q9 Research has shown that arts education increases student engagement, helps close opportunity gaps, and reduces dropout rates, yet a recent study in King County shows that race and income are barriers to access to the arts. How do you see yourself addressing fair access in your district?

If the arts are considered basic education, it should be available for all. Students need to be able to express themselves in whatever means is good for them. Those experiences are crucial.

Q10 If elected, which of these strategies would you consider to support arts education in your district?

- Research current arts program and assess needs at district buildings
- Work for a budget to financially support arts instruction at all schools
- Support professional development for classroom teachers
- Support arts inclusion professional development opportunities

Q11 If elected, would you like Arts, Culture & Education updates from ArtsEd Washington? Yes
